

"News Supplement - World News", BRASS BULLETIN, n62, 1988

USA DEPARTS.

"What profound changes in our great orchestras!" writes Tom Zapatta. Our most famous tubist Arnold Jacobs (Chicago Symphony) and the great trumpeter Bernard Adelstein (Cleveland Orchestra) both retire this year (the difficult question of who replaces them is still undecided...) while Adolph Herseth (Chicago Symphony), the most respected orchestral solo trumpet in the United States, leaves in three years...

"The end of an era."